

These mergers would put the interests of large corporations over the interests of individual consumers, and you have a duty to block them. In a world of increased competition, consumers could be enjoying unlimited local and long-distance telephone calls, as well as high-speed Internet access, for just $40 -- $15 for community Internet and $25 for unlimited phone calls over the Internet. But today, this costs about $90 more than double the price!